The Polish Quarterly of International Affairs

2015 (24)

Articles

Assanbayev Mukhit B.: Central Asia: Under Pressure from Russia and Its Integration Projects 1 123

Bachrynowski Szymon: Between Europe and Russia: The Foreign Policy of Janusz Korwin-Mikke’s New Right in Poland 2 135

Brack Nathalie: Radical and Populist Eurosceptic Parties at the 2014 European Elections: A Storm in a Teacup? 2 7

Bolin Niklas: A Loyal Rookie? The Sweden Democrats’ First Year in the European Parliament 2 59

Cabada Ladislav: From Eurogovernmentalism to Hard Euroscepticism—Genesis of the Czech Liberal-Conservative “Anti-EU” Stream 2 19

Carrier Bruno-Pierre: Stabilisation Cocktails for a Eurozone Crisis Solving Framework 1 79

Casenove Matteo, Kowalczewska Kaja: APT—the New Cyberforce? 3 7

Chwedczuk-Szulc Karol, Zaremba Mateusz: Janusz Korwin-Mikke and the Rest: The Polish Eurosceptic Right Wing 2 121

Dunin-Wąsowicz Maria, Żukrowska Katarzyna: TTIP’s Monetary Clause Muddle 3 107

Dunnicliff Justin, Iżewicz Paulina: Civilian or Military? Addressing Dual-use Items as a Challenge to the Nuclear Non-proliferation Regime 3 21

Erler Bayır Özgün: The Perception of Russia in Poland and Turkey: A Comparative Analysis 1 113

Grigoryan Armen: Armenia’s Membership in the Eurasian Economic Union: An Economic Challenge and Possible Consequences for Regional Security 4 7
Houshisadat Mohammad: Persian Gulf Gas and LNG in the EU’s Goals for Security of Gas Supply by 2030
Kirdar Seda: A New Area for Turkish–Polish Cooperation? Terrorism and the International Criminal Court
Kuśmirek Karolina: Polish Special Operations Forces: Role and Missions in Afghanistan
Lachowski Tomasz: International Criminal Court—the Central Figure of Transitional Justice? Tailoring Post-violence Strategies, with Special Reference to Ukraine
Machnikowski Ryszard: Russian Manoeuvres in the Dark
Marcinkowski Bartosz: Balkan’s Bad Boy Goes West: Serbia’s Challenges on the Way to the EU
Marsai Viktor: Somalia: Security for Whom?
Mercier Stefan: The N-VA: Challenging Europeanism
Murer Jeffrey Stevenson: The Rise of Jobbik, Populism, and the Symbolic Politics of Illiberalism in Contemporary Hungary
Musioł Marek: Post-Soviet Central Asia as a Unique Regional Security Complex
Muś Jan: Turkey Faces the Balkans: Areas of Possible Cooperation with Poland
Nowicka Olga: Small Business, Big Opportunities? TTIP and the EU’s SMEs
Raszewski Sławomir: Energy Security Perceptions in Poland and Turkey
Sadowski Piotr: Can Terrorists Be Denied Refugee Status?
Stauber Péter: Fit for the Job? Legislation and Legal Practice on Terrorism in Hungary
Thillaye Renaud, Chwalisz Claudia: The Front National: Old Rhetoric, New Practices
Tokarski Paweł, Visvizi Anna: Poland’s Winding Road to the Eurozone: From a Cost-Benefit Stance to Risk Aversion
Turpin Lee: The Europeanisation of British Security Policy
Walentek Dawid: South African Politics after the Mangaung Conference
Wnukowski Damian: Balancing ASEAN, the U.S. and China: Indonesia’s Bebas-aktif Foreign Policy in the 21st Century
Wódka Jakub: The Rise of Turkey and Poland: Implications for Economic Cooperation
Review article

Rohr-Garztecki Marek: Security Studies Come of Age

Reviews

Czulda Robert (ed.): Iran 1925–2014: od Pahlawich do Rouhaniego (Natalia Nowak)

Erixon Fredrik, Srinivasan Krishnan (eds): Europe in Emerging Asia: Opportunities and Obstacles in Political and Economic Encounters (Krzysztof Iwanek)

Krugman Paul: End This Depression Now! (Maciej Szylar)

Interview

“They Finished Second in 120 seats:” UKIP and the Ongoing Revolt on the Right in the UK? An interview with Robert Ford, co-author of Revolt on the Right: Explaining Support for the Radical Right in Britain